

RSVP

Have you ever seen or received a party invitation? God is sending you an invitation to the party of love between him, you and every human being. An invitation to be part of his kingdom. God is sending this invitation in various ways, including people who love you such as your parents, relatives, priests, catechists, teachers and good friends. This feast lasts a lifetime and takes place wherever you go. The outfits you can wear for this feast are love, forgiveness, justice, joy, hope, compassion, resilience and humility.

- Take some time to think about this invite and about the outfit you intend to wear.
- If you want to show God that you accept his invite, on the invitation template provided write your name next to the RSVP letters and circle the outfit you intend to wear.
- Now, you can talk to God about the outfit you chose to put on to show that you want to live this party with God.