

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A

Circle the right answer

What colour vestments was the priest wearing today?

white

rose

green

red

purple

Today's Gospel is according to,

St Matthew

St Mark

St Luke

St John

In today's parable, Jesus praises the son who at first refused to go work in the vineyard but then changed his mind and went. There are times, when we say, "Today I will pray more" or "I will read a passage from the Bible every day" or else "I am going to help my parents, before they ask me to." But then we find that we do none of these things. We love God and others, not only through words, but most of all by our actions.

In the shapes below write or draw what you are going to do today to show God and your family or friends that you love them,